POOR RICHARD'S ALMANACK.

The following is a copy of the advertisement of the first number of Poor Richard's Almanack, including the table of contents. It was printed in the Pennsylvania Gazette, on the 19th of December, 1732 :—

“Just published for 1733, an Almanack, containing the Lunations, Eclipses, Planets' Motions and Aspects, Weather, Sun and Moon's Rising and Setting, High Water, &c., besides many pleasant and witty verses, jests and sayings, Author's Motive of Writing, Prediction of the death of his friend, Mr. Titan Leeds, Moon no Cuckold, Batchelor's Folly, Parson's Wine and Baker's Pudding, Short Visits, Kings and Bears, New Fashions, Game for Kisses, Katherine's Love, Different Sentiments, Signs of a Tempest, Death is a Fisherman, Conjugal Debate, Men and Melons, The Prodigal, Breakfast in Bed, Oyster Lawsuit, &c. By R. Saunders, Philomat. Printed and sold by B. Franklin.”

“Such was the eagerness with which this Almanac was sought,” says Mr. Sparks, “that three editions were printed before the end of January, and, although he enlarged his first editions for the subsequent years, yet two editions were frequently required to supply the demand.”

TO THE PUBLIC.

GEORGE S. APPLETON begs to present to the reader a specimen of one of the Almanacs issued under the title of "Poor Richard's Almanack." He has endeavoured to produce it in nearly the same style as that in which it was first published. The connexion of Dr. FRANKLIN with this yearly production is understood to have ceased in 1758. He is gratified that this reproduction is made in the city of Philadelphia, where the original was published, and from whence it was dispersed on the wings of general approbation to all the Colonies, to France and to Britain, to produce effects which, perhaps, even the author himself, with all his far-seeing sagacity, could hardly have hoped for. Of its widely-spread, enduring reputation abroad, there is a well-known proof:—The Summary prefixed to the Almanac of 1757 has been repeatedly translated into French, and in the year 1823 an edition in modern Greek appeared in Paris, from the celebrated press of Didot. It is high time that every citizen of the great Republic, of which Dr. Franklin was one of the most prominent founders, should be able to possess the work which has most contributed to spread his name; and which has sometimes, reproachfully, been said to have had a most important influence in forming the American Character.

Courteous Reader,

I Might in this place attempt to gain thy Favour, by declaring that I write Almanacks with no other View than that of the publick Good; but in this I should not be sincere; and Men are now a-days too wise to be deceiv'd by Pretences how specious soever. The plain Truth of the Matter is, I am excessive poor, and my Wife, good Woman, is, I tell her, excessive proud; she cannot bear, she says, to sit spinning in her Shift of Tow, while I do nothing but gaze at the Stars; and has threatned more than once to burn all my Books and Rattling-Traps (as she calls my Instruments) if I do not make some profitable Use of them for the good of my Family. The Printer has offer'd me some considerable share of the Profits, and I have thus begun to comply with my Dame's desire.

Indeed this Motive would have had Force enough to have made me publish an Almanack many Years since, had it not been overpower'd by my Regard for my good Friend and Fellow-Student, Mr. Titan Leeds, whose Interest I was extremely unwilling to hurt: But this Obstacle (I am far from speaking it with Pleasure) is soon to be removed, since inexorable Death, who was never known to respect Merit, has already prepared the mortal Dart, the fatal Sister has already extended her destroying Shears, and that ingenious Man must soon be taken from us. He dies, by my Calculation made at his Request, on Oct. 17. 1733. 3 ho. 29 m. P. M. at the very instant of the \oslash of \odot and \ddagger : By his own Calculation he will survive till the 26th of the same Month. This small difference between us we have disputed whenever we have met these 9 Years past; but at length he is inclinable to agree with my Judgment; Which of us is most exact, a little Time will now determine. As therefore these Provinces may not longer expect to see any of his Performances after this Year, I think my self free to take up the Task, and request a share of the publick Encouragement; which I am the more apt to hope for on this Account count, that the Buyer of my Almanack may consider himself, not only as purchasing an useful Utensil, but as performing an Act of Charity, to his poor Friend and Servant R. SAUNDERS.

 Since I ne'er heard that she was married.

Explanation of this ALMANACK.

THE first Column shews the Days of the Month. The second shews the Week day, Sunday Letter being this Year G.

The third contains the Days observ'd by the Church, the Aspects of the Planets and Judgment of the Weather; the Length, Increase, and Decrease of Days, the rising and setting of the seven Stars, &c.

The fourth is the Time of High Water at Philadelphia, (h) signifies half an hour after.

The fifth is the Moon's Place.

The sixth is the Sun's rising and setting, thus understood; - Against the second day of January you see in the 6th Column these Figures 7 14 5, which show that the Sun rises that Day 14 minutes after 7, and sets 14 minutes before 5. I have chose to put the Sun's rising and setting for every day, rather than the Moon's, because of its constant Use in setting of Clocks and Watches.

In the last Column, with the Changes of the Moon, I have put her rising and setting every five or six Days: If you want to know her rising or setting on a Day or two after That against which I have set it, the common Rule of an hour and half later each day, will be exact enough to direct People in their Travelling, which is the common Use that is made of it.

Profitable Observations and Notes.

ALL Measures of Longitude are deduced from Barley corns: Three Barley-corns make an Inch, 12 Inches a Foot, 3 Feet a Yard, 5 Yards & an half one Pole or Perch, 40 Pearches make a Furlong, 8 Furlongs make a Mile, in a Mile are 320 Perches or Poles, 1066 Paces, 1408 Ells, 1760 Yards, 5280 Feet; 63360 Inches; 190080 Barley corns.

The circumference of the Earth and Sea jointly is 25036 Miles, and the Diameter 7966 Miles, and its Semidiameter 3983 Miles, according to English Mensuration.

More nice than wife.

Old Batchelor would have a Wife that's wife,
Fair, rich, and young, a Maiden for his Bed;
Not proud, nor churlish, but of faultless size;
A Country Houfwife in the City bred.
He's a nice Fool, and long in vain hath staid;
He should bespeak her, there's none ready made.

*Each Age of Men new Fashions doth invent;
Things which are old, young Men do not esteem:
What pleas'd our Fathers, doth not us content;
What flourish'd then, we out of fashion deem:
And that's the reason, as I understand,
Why Prodigus did sell his Father's Land.*

Mirth pleaseth some, to others 'tis offence,
 Some commend plain conceit, some profound sense;
 Some wish a witty Jest, some dislike that,
 And most would have themselves they know not what.
 Then he that would please all, and himself too,
 Takes more in hand than he is like to do.

His Fish-pond is, and we the Fishes be:
His Net some general Sicknefs; howe'er he
Is not so kind as other Fishers be;
For if they take one of the smaller Fry,
They throw him in again, he shall not die:
But Death is fure to kill all he can get,
And all is Fish with him that comes to Net.

Time was my spouſe and I could not agree,
 Striving about ſuperiority :
 The text which ſaith that man and wife are one,
 Was the chief argument we ſtood upon :
 She held, they both one woman ſhould become ;
 I held they ſhould be man, and both but one.
 Thus we contended daily, but the ſtrife
 Could not be ended, till both were one Wife.

The

The Benefit of going to LAW.

Dedicated to the Counties of K-t & H-n---rd-n.

TWO Beggars travelling along,
One blind, the other lame,
Pick'd up an Oyfter on the Way
To which they both laid claim :
The Matter rose so high, that they
Resolv'd to go to Law,
As often richer Fools have done,
Who quarrel for a Straw.
A Lawyer took it strait in hand,
Who knew his Business was,
To mind nor one nor t'other side,
But make the Best o'th' Cause ;
As always in the Law's the Case :
So he his Judgment gave,
And Lawyer-like he thus resolv'd
What each of them should have ;
*Blind Plaintiff, lame Defendant, share
The Friendly Laws impartial Care,
A Shell for him, a Shell for thee,
The Middle is the Lawyer's Fee.*
